

FOOD SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

June 13, 2007

Dear Valued Customer,

Biosun Flavors and Food Ingredients has a well established Food Safety Standard Operating Procedure in place to ensure the safety and security of the raw materials and finished goods stored and manufactured in our production facility. A regular evaluation and training schedule is maintained for our standard operating procedures to guarantee that all personnel understand and follow the policies outlined therein.

In addition, Biosun recognizes that a crucial step to ensuring the safety of our finished products is to thoroughly evaluate and qualify the security of our raw material supply chain. For this reason, Biosun requires that all of its suppliers be registered with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and provide documentation of food safety and security policies in place at their facilities. This documentation is evaluated and all shipments are inspected for safety prior to introducing any raw materials into Biosun's product range.

All manufacturing operations are carried out to the best industry standards, employing good manufacturing procedures (GMP), hazard analysis procedures (HACCP) and physical security measures.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Barber
Technical Services and Regulatory Manager
